The following signatures verify this student's participation in:

- 1) the appropriate ensemble or choir as determined by the music faculty
- 2) the necessary music lessons and is therefore eligible to receive the Jennings Award in the amount awarded to the student in their financial aid package.

If the student has extenuating circumstances as to why they can not participate, they must receive the signature of the Director of the School of Music before returning this form.

By signing this form you agree to participate for the entire academic year. If this changes it will be necessary for you or your faculty member to contact the Financial Aid Office so that an adjustment can be made.
